Sydney South West Area Health Service (SSWAHS) has a duty of care to all patients and clients receiving services. NSW Health Circulars 97/80 (dated 11 August 1997), 99/65 (dated 26 July 1999) and 2000/55 (dated 7 July 2000), as well as the Health Services Act 1997, outline the policy and procedures that SSWAHS must follow with respect to:

1. employment screening (criminal record checking) of all persons working in any capacity in SSWAHS;
2. employment screening of staff and other persons working in child related areas; and
3. reporting and managing allegations of sexual, physical and emotional abuse of children and other patients/clients by staff, volunteers or any other person employed or engaged in any capacity in SSWAHS.

Note: If you will be working with children you need to complete a Prohibited Employment Declaration Form.

1. sexual offences;
2. serious offences, involving a threat or injury to another person. That is:-

3. other offences, where directly relevant to the duties of the position (eg: embezzlement/ larceny for financial positions).

In urgent situations, some persons may be authorised to commence duty subject to satisfactory criminal record check. If the check is found to be unsatisfactory services may be terminated and/or future placements not offered.

Please be assured that SSWAHS has a strict regard to privacy and has developed specific protocols for the criminal record checking of individuals.

In signing the Authorisation Form you have agreed that:

PROHIBITED EMPLOYMENT DECLARATION

The Declaration must be completed if you are NOT a person prohibited by the Act from seeking, or remaining in child-related employment. Seek legal advice if you are unsure of your status as a Prohibited Person.

CHILD PROTECTION (PROHIBITED EMPLOYMENT) ACT 1998

The Child Protection (Prohibited Employment) Act 1998 makes it an offence for a person convicted of a serious sex offence (a Prohibited Person) or a Registrable Person under the Child Protection (Offenders Registration) Act 2000, to apply for, undertake or remain in, child-related employment. It does not apply if an order, from the Industrial Relations or the Administrative Decisions Tribunal or the Commission for Children and Young People declares that the Act does not apply to a person in respect of a specific offence.

Section 5 of the Child Protection (Prohibited Employment) Act 1998 defines a serious sex offence as: an offence involving sexual activity or acts of indecency that was committed in NSW and that was punishable by penal servitude or imprisonment for 12 months or more, even if the sentence was not served; or

- an offence involving sexual activity or acts of indecency that was committed elsewhere and that would have been punishable by penal servitude or imprisonment for 12 months or more if it had been committed in NSW; or
- an offence under Sections 91D-91G (other than if committed by a child prostitute) and 578B or 578C (2A) of the Crimes Act 1900 or a similar offence under a law other than a law of NSW; or
- an offence of attempting, or of conspiracy or incitement, to commit an offence referred to in the preceding paragraphs; or
- any other offence prescribed by the regulations.

Note: A conviction for carnal knowledge is classified as a serious sex offence under this legislation.

Child-related employment means any employment, where at least one of the essential duties of the position involves direct contact with children where that contact is not directly supervised. Section 3 of the Child Protection (Prohibited Employment) Act 1998 specifies that child-related employment is employment:

- involving the provision of child protection services;
- in pre-schools, kindergartens and child care centres (including residential child care centres);
- in schools or other educational institutions (not including universities);
- in detention centres (within the meaning of the Children (Detention Centres) Act 1987);
- in refuges used by children;
- in wards of public or private hospitals in which children are patients;
- in clubs, associations or movements (including of a cultural, recreational or sporting nature) having a significant child membership;
- in any religious organisation;
- in any entertainment venues where the clientele is primarily children;
- as a babysitter or childminder that is arranged by a commercial agency;
- involving fostering or other child care;
- involving regular provision of taxi services for the transport of children with a disability;
- involving the private tuition of children;
- involving the direct provision of health services;
- involving the provision of counselling or other support services for children;
- on school buses;
- at overnight camps for children;
- any other prescribed by regulation.

Under this Act:

- it is an offence for a Prohibited Person to apply for, undertake or remain in child related employment;
- employers must ask existing employees, both paid and unpaid, and preferred applicants for employment to declare if they are a Prohibited Person or not;
- all child-related employees must inform their employers if they are a Prohibited Person or remove themselves from child-related employment. A Prohibited Person is someone who has been convicted of a serious sex offence or, who has had a finding for a charge of a serious sexual offence proven in court, even if a conviction was not recorded;
- penalties are imposed for non compliance.

I am aware that I am ineligible to apply for, undertake or remain in, child related employment if I have been convicted of a serious sex offence as defined in the Child Protection (Prohibited Employment) Act 1998 or if I am a Registrable Person under the Child Protection (Offenders Registration) Act 2000.

I have read and understood the above information in relation to the Child Protection (Prohibited Employment) Act 1998. I am aware that it is an offence to make a false statement on this form.

I declare that I am not a person prohibited by the Act from seeking, undertaking or remaining in child related employment.

I understand that this information may be referred to the Commission for Children and Young People and/or to NSW Police for law enforcement purposes and for monitoring and auditing compliance with the procedures and standards for employment screening in accordance with Section 36 (1)(f) of the Commission for Children and Young People Act 1998.

I am aware that if considered for employment in a primary child-related position, several checks will be undertaken to ascertain my suitability, including:

1. a national criminal record check for charges and/or convictions (including spent convictions) for:
 - any sexual offence (including but not limited to, sexual assault, acts of indecency, child pornography, child prostitution and carnal knowledge);
